

What other events might occur as a result of this one.
Explain your response.

Imagine that you can travel back in time. What advice would you give to whom?

Would the world be different if this event had not taken place? How?

Name some people that were involved in the event.
How are they different?

What parts of the event are controlled by nature? And what parts by humans?

Can you name similar events? How are they similar?

Did technology play a role in the event? How would the event be different if it did (or didn't)?

Complete the analogy:
This event is like _____ because _____

What other events are related to this events? How are they related?

Can you think of effects of the event that we will experience in the future?

How can we best inform the world about the event?
Movie? Series? Game?
Talkshow? Why?

How would this event be different if it happened 100 years ago?

What other events are related to this events? How are they related?

Can you think of effects of the event that we will experience in the future?

Imagine that you will interview the people involved in the event. What would you ask them?

Would you like to have been a part of this event? In what way? Why?